

The EMERSON REVIEW

ESTABLISHED IN 2026

MEDIA KIT

THE PUBLICATION

The Emerson Review is an invitation-only digital editorial publication, an online magazine, of long-form essays on founders, executives, coaches and speakers. Established in 2026, it is published by Human Touch Publishing in Nashville, Tennessee.

MISSION

The Emerson Review exists to tell the true stories of the people who build (founders, executives, coaches and speakers) with the care, craft and integrity of a great literary review, so that their experience can inform, inspire and outlast them.

WHAT A FEATURE INCLUDES

- Recorded 30-minute conversations on The Emerson Hour: Inside the Lives of High-Level Leaders, the companion podcast
- A long-form essay with editorial photography
- An “In Their Words” Q&A in the leader’s own voice
- The official “As Featured In” badge, for use after publication

The feature is free. No one ever pays to be featured.
